Assume the position

A solid uniform disk of radius b has a hole of diameter D drilled out at a distance r from the center of the disk. The weight of the removed material is F_H.

Find the weight F_W necessary to keep the disk at equilibrium at the angle shown.