A charge $+q$ lies a distance d from a charge $+Q_o$. An insulating curved charged rod with charge $+Q_o$ uniformly distributed is positioned as shown. All points of the curved rod are also a distance d from $+q$.

Consider the following statements made by three students.